

HEALTHRITE is an innovative SMA program focused on providing the RITE service, the RITE support, and the RITE products to healthcare, education, buildings, and hospitality industries. Our primary focus is assisting all departments with developing programs that focus on employee, patient and customer wellness!

SMA is a national distributor with coverage throughout North America.

Our distributors:

- are independently owned
- are dedicated to delivering the highest level of service and support
- touch our customers on a daily basis
- understand your challenges
- customize programs to fit your needs
- deliver economical solutions centered around quality of service!

Allied-Eagle Supply Co an owner member of SMA, has a long standing track record of providing the RITE solutions for all customers! We focus on your most important issues:

- Regulatory updates / challenges
- Patient safety / worker safety / customer safety
- In-service training / HCAHPS / HAIs
- Product / program training
- Improving productivity
- Sustainable / green solutions / LEED

As an approved Navigator supplier, we know how to tailor our services to meet your specific needs! We've designated an Account Specialist whose primary role is to stay abreast of regulatory updates and product innovations.

By providing you with a highly educated account manager, we can better support your facilities' goals and initiatives!
